Towards Fellini 100: 'The films I inspired'

Tuesday 15, 22, Thursday 31 October; Tuesday 5, 12, 26 November; Tuesday 3, 17 December 2019e 2019

Film review dedicated to Federico Fellini

After 'The films I saw' and 'The films I wrote', the Cineteca (film library) hosts a new review entitled "The films I inspired" that will investigate the legacy left by Fellini in contemporary cinema. The result of this study is that rather different directors paid tribute to the work of the great master from Rimini.

Here the schedule of the projections of some films inspired by Fellini:

On Tuesday 15 October 'Grand Budapest Hotel' by Wes Anderson

On Tuesday 22 October 'Reality' by Matteo Garrone

On Thursday 31 October, on the anniversary of the director's death, 'La grande bellezza' by Paolo Sorrentino

On Tuesday 5 November: 'Dolor y gloria' by Pedro Almodovar

On Tuesday 12 November: 'Notti Magiche' by Paolo Virzi

On Tuesday 26 November: 'American Graffiti' by George Lucas

On Tuesday 3 December: 'Sweet Charity' by Bob Fosse

On Tuesday 17 December: 'Nine' by Bob Marshall

The film review anticipates the celebrations in honour of Fellini in 2020: a long journey, full of events, celebrating the centenary of the director's birth and leading to the inauguration of the Fellini Museum.

Wonder and text, 400 years of history at the Gambalunga Library

From Saturday 26 October 2019 to Sunday 26 January 2020

'Per Documento e Meraviglia. una storia lunga 400 anni.' Exhibition on the occasion of Gambalunga Library 400th anniversary (1619 - 2019)

An exhibition dedicated to the Gambalunga library's vast bibliographic and iconographic collection, to mark the 400th anniversary of its foundation.

A journey through time, from the remote Middle Ages to the present, told through rare and precious manuscripts, globes, books, photographs and films.

Housed between the Galleria dell'Immagine and the splendid ancient rooms of the Gambalunga Library, the exhibition is a real opportunity to visit and admire their precious furnishings and important bibliographic collections. Three of the rooms were set up in the first half of the seventeenth century by the librarian Moretti with severe shelves of walnut while the last room, in Venetian style, was decorated by the painter Giovan Battista Costa in the eighteenth century.

Fellini 100 and La dolce vita exhibition

From Saturday 14 December 2019 to Sunday 8 March 2020
 Traveling exhibition dedicated to Federico Fellini
 The traveling exhibition "Fellini 100 and La dolce vita exhibition" will be inaugurated in Castel Sismondo, Saturday 14 December 2019.
 The exhibition represents a sort of anticipation of the project of the new Fellini Museum, which will open to the public at the end of 2020.
 Set up through a system of "staging" as movie sets, it revolves around three subjects: the first tells the story of Italy from the twenties to the thirties, then it moves on to the post-war period, ending with the eighties through the imagination of Fellini's films.
 The second nucleus is dedicated to the story of the director's traveling companions, real, imaginary, collaborators and no.
 Finally, the third nucleus will be dedicated to the presentation of the permanent project of the Federico Fellini International Museum. After the Rimini exhibition, the exhibition will begin its journey first stop at Rome in April until June 2020, then crossing national borders with exhibitions in Moscow and Berlin.
 Thanks to "Fellini 100 and La dolce vita exhibition" visitors will learn about the unpublished material acquired and kept in the municipal archive.
 The exhibition is curated by Studio Azzurro of Milan with the consultation of Marco Bertozzi and Anna Villari.

Fellini, il Libro dei sogni (the Book of Dreams) and the dialogue between the arts

1 - 2 April 2020

Fellini 100: a conference entirely dedicated to this unicum in the history of cinema

Scholars, researchers, academics from all over the world in Rimini to interrogate, investigate and dissect the most famous of the nocturnal journals, the album where Fellini noted, for over thirty years, his oneiric activity, a real source of his overflowing inventive talent.

In fact, the purpose of the conference is to understand whether the Fellini book of cinema can be metaphorically and literally "re-opened", with the confirmation of some lines of study and of new research perspectives, on the occasion of the centenary of the director's birth and in the imminence of the opening of the new Federico Fellini International Museum.

The conference is one of the initiatives that, under the title of "Fellini 100", are supported by the Coordination of the celebrations for the centenary of the birth of Federico Fellini (1920-2020), composed by the Municipality of Rimini, the Emilia-Romagna Region, the Directorate General of the Mibac, the Directorate General of MAECI, the Istituto Luce / Cinecittà, the Experimental Center for Cinematography / National Film Archive, the Cineteca di Bologna Foundation and the Turin Film Museum.

Romagna Osteria 2019: the voyage of the senses

From 24 May 2019 to 15 May 2020. Next appointments in Rimini in September and December

Event by 'La Brigata del diavolo'

'Romagna Osteria' is a project by 'Visit Romagna' that gather the best chefs in the area, who bring their knowledge and culinary flavors to the evocative places of Romagna.

The idea is inspired by the "Manifesto" of the Cuochi Sognatori of the Associazione Brigata del Diavolo, led by the creator Fausto Fratti. The Brigade, was born from the passion for cooking combined with the discovery of the landscape.

It is stimulating for chefs to tell the story, the colors and the flavors enhancing the charm of the places and the beauty of nature. For this reason, the decision to leave their restaurants and move their kitchen to the most unusual sites rich in poetry, art and spirituality. Many are the appointments between May 2019 and May 2020. Along this journey, the Brigade has planned two stops in Rimini: Wednesday 11 and Thursday 12 September in the Vecchia Pescheria (the old fish market) in Piazza Cavour. On the occasion of the reopening of the fishing season, the cooks will prepare a breakfast / lunch open to the whole city in the morning, then an aperitif at the Teatro Galli and a dinner in the Vecchia Pescheria.

The year will end at the Grand Hotel, a symbol of Rimini's dolce vita, with a Christmas party with all the chefs of the Brigade on Thursday 19th December.
