Cirque Bidon

Entrez dans la danse!

Theater, music and circus arts

On the way to approach the new Fellini Museum, an event that returns the poetic gaze of the Maestro from Rimini, noted several times among the spectators of Cirque Bidon. A theater of art and poetry, the Cirque Bidon, an itinerant dream-like circus, was born in France in the '70s almost as opposed to the traditional circus, that of exotic animals and large circus families.

Shortly after, Francois Bidon arrives in Italy with his first friends and artists and takes his nouveau cirque through the streets of cities and towns, a mix of theater, dance, acrobatics, live music and clowning, which will give life to the new contemporary circus. In this new creation, the artists of Cirque Bidon invite viewers to participate in the incessant voyage of the circus nomads, questioning and fantasizing about the wonderful world of planets that flit endlessly. Circles, spheres, perfection, balance, acrobatics, balls and air bubbles, juggling, air circle, metaphysical questions, weather reports, clowns, mimes, puppets, dances, songs.
