Falso movimento

From Saturday 30 October to Sunday 5 December 2021

The works of Kiril Cholakov and Denis Riva on display at the Zamagni Gallery

Exhibition curated by Valerio Dehò. Poetry, nostalgic solitude and memory through the works of Kiril Cholakov and Denis Riva.

Falso Movimento, before being the title of this exhibition, was the title of a famous film by Wim Wenders made and inspired by the novel by Wolfgang Goethe "Wilhelm Meister's years of learning", written at the end of the eighteenth century.

The theme of the film and the book is that of overcoming the artist's loneliness.

In the world of KIRIL CHOLAKOV two souls coexist, that of the story, of the word that travels through time and that of memory that prevents you from moving, that binds the artist to a fixed point, to an origin. The universe of DENIS RIVA has the poetry of alpine spaces, the long perspectives of a strong and present nature which are the places where it lives.

Inauguration of the exhibition on Saturday 30 October at 5 pm.

Teatro degli Atti: Pis & Love

Sunday 5 December 2021

Theater dance performance by Compagnia il tempo favorevole

Pis & Lov in our local accent, written as it is pronounced, it takes on the ironic trait that can transform even bitterness into celebration.

The show unfolds through different stories that speak of abandonment, lived in as many symbolic rooms that contain them. Female tales translated into a body language that investigates and experiences the nuances of the fall.

Presented by Mulino di Amleto Teatro in collaboration with the Municipality of Rimini. Tickets available on Liveticket

Mauro Pipani - Rena

From Saturday 13 November to Monday 13 December 2021

Solo exhibition at Augeo Art Space

In a neutral space, suspended between the past and the future, Pipani presents in the gallery a series of recent works that trace the sunny seaside of the Riviera, places that were always dear and inspirational to the artist from Cesenatico.

The crystalline sails, the golden sediments crystallized on the surfaces of the paintings bear the signs of these places and, the lightness of the material in continuous transmutation, is reflected in contemporary works disconnected from a provincial context while maintaining the emotional imprinting of the "landscape" of the Riviera

The works float in a temporal universe, in spatiality, letting us glimpse the brightness of new landscapes.

Bright Nativity scene, decorations and Epiphany on the Bridge of the Miracles

6 January and Christmas holidays from 8 December 2021

The longest New Year's Eve

The bridge of the Resistance, where it is said that Sant'Antonio preached to the fish, is decorated for the whole Christmas season with scallops, symbol of the Christians, decorated with good wishes phrases in over 60 languages, a multicultural initiative in memory of Davide Farinella.

On the bridge there is a luminous nativity scene with the Holy Family between the Angels and the stylized figures of the Magi, made by Salvatore Federici. Here you can also admire the Nativity in polychrome wood by the "Friends of the Sea".

The highlight of the initiative is Monday 6 January, from 4.00 pm, with the Sacred Representation of the Nativity in a naval procession with the Magi, who, on board boats, bring gifts to the boat of the Baby Jesus. The event, accompanied by Christmas carols performed by the Polyphonic Choir Cappella Musicale Malatestiana and luminous fountains, is made by the Ponte dei Miracoli Association in collaboration with the Rimini Marine Association.

In conclusion, the Parish of San Giuseppe al Porto offers mulled wine and donut.

Guido Reni. "Landscape with playing Cherubs"

until 9 January 2022

Unicum. Tales at the Museum, curated by Massimo Pulini

As part of the Unicum exhibition. Tales at the Museum, the painting by Guido Reni, Landscape with cupids, is presented.

The work is a landscape with Scherzi di amorini (Jokes of Cherubs) (oil on canvas, 77x60), re-emerged on the antiques market and already attributed to Francesco Albani (or to his school), and is now recognized as a rare masterpiece of Guido Reni's early production, commissioned by Odoardo Farnese with a provenance from the secret dressing rooms of the Palazzetto Farnese.

The very refined hand is, according to the scholar Massimo Pulini, that of Guido Reni (Bologna, 1575-1642): "a careful and fluid hand, capable of descending into botanical details and of maintaining an algid, clear chromatic register; to move all the virtuosity of the pictorial orchestra without losing even for a moment the harmony of the whole".

In the world of Tonino Guerra

Until January 2021

Fellini Museum: the exhibition in the Isotta wing of Castel Sismondo curated by Luca Cesari

The exhibition returns the richness, variety and complexity of the poetics and the world of the Romagna poet and screenwriter Tonino Guerra who for many years worked alongside Federico Fellini.

Curated by Luca Cesari, it is an extract from the Museum in Santarcangelo di Romagna that testifies the third period of the poet's life and art: the return to the places of childhood, a new encounter with the land and ancient crafts. Here are concentrated more than thirty years of imagination and industriousness, the last of Tonino Guerra.

The exhibition itinerary presents the "luciole di bellezza"/"fireflies of beauty", a collection of paintings, books and objects conceived by the Master and created by the skilled hands of artists and artisans.

The exhibition dedicated to the great poet, writer and screenwriter from Santarcangelo is included in the itinerary of the Fellini Museum.

Francesca 2021

From 8 March 2021 to 27 February 2022

Tribute to Dante and Francesca da Rimini on the seventh centenary of the poet's death

In the year of Dante's celebrations, Rimini dedicates a rich program of initiatives to Francesca da Rimini, the most famous and beloved literary character of the Divine Comedy who has become a universal myth. After the success of the event "Baci dal mondo | WorldWide Kisses " on 8 March, on the occasion of International Women's Day, and which saw students and professors from twenty-five universities on five continents connected in streaming, cultural events continued throughout the summer in the Malatesta lands between Romagna and Marche with concerts, seminars, study conferences, exhibitions, educational activities for schools, guided tours and much more, all initiatives aimed at recovering attention to history, the arts, memory and, above all, for the positive values that Francesca represents.

Eight locations between Romagna and Marche are the scene of the appointments dedicated to Francesca, starting with Rimini, the city of Francesca, and Gradara, the castle of the myth, up to Santarcangelo, San Leo, Montefiore, Pesaro, Mombaroccio, Mercatello sul Metauro.

Among the top appointments in Rimini in autumn the ballet 'Francesca da Rimini' by Tciakowsky with Svetlana Zacharova, étoile of Bol'shoj, at the Galli Theater in Rimini on 25 September, the convention on The Divine Comedies of the Malatesta family at the City Museum on November 19th, the 'Dannunziana Dinner' with music and performed on 25 November at the Istituto Alberghiero Sigismondo Pandolfo Malatesta and the exhibition 'The Imagined Comedy' with precious 19th century engravings (City Museum December 29th, 2021 - February 27th, 2022).

The event, conceived by Ferruccio Farina, a scholar passionate about the subject and organized by the Francesca da Rimini International Study Center, the prestigious scientific committee with international danteans, is part of the "Francesca 2021"

Francesca 2021: The imagined Comedy. Dante's Hell, Purgatory and Paradise illustrated by famous artists

From Friday 29th December 2021 to Tuesday 8th March 2022

Exhibition at the City Museum

The documentary exhibition entitled 'The imagined comedy' is proposed as part of the Francesca 2021 project. Dante's Hell, Purgatory and Paradise illustrated by famous artists, shows the birth of the 'imagined' Comedy in the meaning of the story through images.

The exhibition collects some rare examples of ancient Comedies together with the most recent forms of illustrated writing: from graphic novels to manga up to pop-up books. The splendid lithographic plates made in 1850 by Franz Adolf Adolf Stürler complete the exhibition.

Amintore Galli Theater: Don Juan

Friday 18 March 2022

Theater Season 2021/2022 of the Amintore Galli Theater

On the original score by Marc Álvarez, the sixteen dancers of Aterballetto tell the story of Don Juan in a single act. In the choreography, capable of underlining nuances and emotions, we find all the characters of the story, from Donna Elvira to Donna Anna to Zerlina and Masetto. The dance becomes a magnifying glass of the individual characters and revealing the interior world of the men and women on stage in a subtle but evident way.

Even more important is the connection with contemporaneity and relevant themes appear in the background, including the complexity of the dialogue between genres.

Through an innovative psychoanalytic and Freudian reading, Don Giovanni's relationship with the figure of the Commendatore is rewritten, replaced by the introduction of a "Mother". And Don Giovanni becomes a human being who probably suffered the great trauma of maternal abandonment. In every encounter with the other, the serial lover looks for his mother and therefore cannot engage in any relationship or situation.

Teatro degli Atti: Night is my favorite day

Thursday 31 March 2022

Theater Season 2021/2022 of the Amintore Galli Theater

A reflection on the relationship with the Other through a meditation on animals and the ecosystems in which they live.

The dance breaks down and reassembles the animal practice of tracing and being traced, of searching and hiding.

The animal and the vegetable, the organic and the inorganic blend in the dark space of the nocturnal forest; landslides and calls break through, breaking the quiet.

A forest that is neither virgin nor idealized, but technonatural, which includes and transforms the marks left by its inhabitants.

Amintore Galli Theater: Monjour

Sunday 3 April 2022

Theater Season 2021/2022 of the Amintore Galli Theater

Monjour is a "contemporary cartoon" made up of bodies in flesh and blood, guided by the irony of Silvia Gribaudi.

The show, made up of two dancers, a clown / actor and two acrobats, deals with the relationship between body and comedy, between drawing and aesthetics in the relationship between performer and audience.

What is their interdependence? What is the mutual responsibility between spectator and artist? In Monjour a director / performer dialogues from the audience with the performers, deconstructing and reconstructing the images that the audience sees during the performance and creating a comic and choreographic physical virtuosity.
